

IAMFA

Excellence in Cultural Facility Management

Advancing Cultural Heritage Through Facility Excellence

Elevate Your Cultural Facility Management Experience

Leading Excellence in Cultural Facilities Management

The International Association of Museum Facility Administrators (IAMFA) is the premier global network exclusively dedicated to cultural facility professionals and experts responsible for preserving and operating the world's most prestigious museums, libraries, and cultural institutions.

Member Benefits

IAMFA BY THE NUMBERS

1990

established

320

worldwide members

190

institutional & corporate partners

12

countries represented

Industry-Leading Professional Development

IAMFA Online

Access timely educational content and expert insights through our monthly online professional development platform

Regional Meetings

Connect with local colleagues to share solutions and discuss best practices

Annual International Conference

Immerse yourself in cutting-edge facility management practices through hands-on workshops, expert presentations, and behind-the-scenes tours at world-class cultural institutions

Elevate Your Cultural Facility Management Experience

Papyrus Magazine

Our flagship publication, available in print and digital formats, showcases the depth of our community's expertise. Each issue features case studies, success stories, technical insights from leading cultural institutions, emerging trends in sustainable facility management, and more.

Unmatched Networking Opportunities

Connect with peers who understand your unique challenges

Build relationships with industry-leading solution providers

Access a global network of facility management expertise

Exclusive Knowledge Resources

Comprehensive Benchmarking Program

Gain valuable insights through our annual facility operations benchmarking study, helping you optimize your facility's performance and justify resource needs

Career Development

Access exclusive job postings and career advancement opportunities

Elevate Your Cultural Facility Management Experience

Strategic Industry Partnerships

Engage with reputable partners, contractors, and service providers who understand cultural facility needs

Access specialized expertise in preservation, sustainability, and operations

Educate yourself on new ideas, technologies, and innovative solutions

“IAMFA is a global network of people who will pick up the phone when you need them.”

*Tony Young
Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh*

“Join IAMFA. Jump in with both feet. You’ll thank yourself in 20 years.”

*Tim Case
The Sixth Floor Museum at Daley Plaza*

“IAMFA taught me everything from cooling towers to heat pumps to security centers.”

Jennifer Fragomeni Exploratorium

“IAMFA members are generous, collaborative, and committed.”

*Angela Matchica
EwingCole*

Why Join IAMFA

Exclusive access to cultural facility management best practices

Professional recognition in the cultural sector

Direct connection to peers facing similar challenges

Continuous learning and career advancement opportunities

Contribute to shaping industry standards and practices

Connect with Us

 www.iamfa.org

 iamfa1990@gmail.com